

Corporate Homicide 2 Years on:
How has the legislation changed your health and safety procedures?

13 April 2010

Edinburgh City Centre

Conference Programme

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 09:00-09:30 | Registration and Refreshments |
| 09:30-09:45 | Chair
Chair's opening remarks |
| 09:45-10:05 | Elaine Taylor, Head of Health and Safety Division, Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Services
The Health and Safety Division: understanding what its role means for you? |
| 10:05-10:25 | Gavin Anderson, Advocate, Westwater Advocates
The Law – making sure you know what the legislation really means |
| 10:25-10:45 | Professor Russel Griggs OBE, Member of the Expert Group, CBI
Impact of the Corporate Homicide Act on Health and Safety |
| 10:45-11:00 | Question and Answer Session |
| 11:00-11:15 | Refreshment Break |
| | Different Perspectives |
| 11:15-11:35 | Fraser Allan, Head of HSEQ, CBES Ltd
Minimising risk in a high hazard industry |

- 11:35-11:55 Speaker tbc
Prevention rather than reaction: planning for safety
- 11:55-12:15 Speaker from OILC (invited)
Health and Safety Offshore: where high standards must meet high risk
- 12:15-12:35 Brian Mitchell, Personnel Manager (Health and Safety), Renfrewshire Council
Between employer and compliance: getting the balance right
- 12:35-12:45 Question and Answer Session
- 12:45-13:45 Lunch
- 13:45-14:05 David Watt, Director, Institute of Directors
A new kind of enterprise risk: how to manage it
- 14:05-14:25 Iain Tasker, Assistant Secretary, Scottish Trade Union
Congress
Protecting employees: employees protecting themselves
- 14:25-14:45 Tom Stocker, Partner, McGrigors
Case Study: a risk gone too far
- 14:45-15:00 Question and Answer Session
- 15:00-15:15 Refreshment Break
- 15:15-15:45 Panel Discussion
Topic
- 15:45-15:50 Chair
Closing remarks