

Understanding & Delivering Children's Rights

Thursday 7th December 2017

Summary of Comments from Delegate Feedback

Comments about whether expectations were met and the quality of the content:

- Good ideas on how we can look at engaging with young children to hear their views
- Very interesting – would like to know more
- I wasn't sure of what to expect, sessions were very detailed and useful. I have lots to think about to incorporate into my practice
- Interactive Q&A, time to talk with colleagues, share thoughts & ideas
- Mixed professionals – good to hear from various agencies
- This was a reminder of what I already know – however I will take away some good points from today
- More content and discussion than anticipated
- Well structured
- Fantastic

Best thing about the seminar

- Examples of participation in action
- Very informative, personal examples
- Session 1
- Small group/good discussion
- Plenty of information covering a wide variety of stages/subjects
- Well put together – all relevant
- Very engaging and learnt a lot
- Discussing around participation
- Very engaging presenter
- The balance of views and rights
- Pace

Please provide any overall comment on content

- Very interesting – reinforced own beliefs
- Good opportunity to refresh my thinking
- Session 1 particularly helpful reminder of the key points
- Lots of information that I could use in my work
- Very useful and detailed
- Excellent seminar
- Very good – worked very well to have refreshments available at 08:30 as meant there was incentive to arrive early
- Very enjoyable morning
- Interesting insight into Tam's experiences as Children's Commissioner
- Very informative and thorough – really enjoyed it – thank you
- Very well run seminar